Dear Mr. Lay,

I am writing this job application letter after seeing information from the Jobsnet company web page, that Jobsnet needs a web designer. With experience in participating in application design competitions both nationally and internationally, I am confident to apply for this position because it fits my background.

I have experience working for 2 years as a web designer at Airlangga company, here I have proven my capacity as a designer for company application products. I work closely with the product, engineer and marketing teams to produce a product application that customers can enjoy and feel comfortable using.

I am always up to date with new things, especially in the fields of design, business and marketing, including internet marketing. I have learned about the necessary design and programming such as HTML and JavaScript. For that, I want to prove my ability in this field at JobsKarir .Inc.

I look forward to discussing my qualifications in more detail. I am willing to be called for an interview as soon as possible.

Thank you for your attention.

Best Regards
